

Special project - YRE Global Action Days

Meet with former YRE student!

YRE International will host an online meet-up event for the first time! This project is being organised to mark YRE's new initiative, Global Action Days. The Global Action Days is a call for all students and teachers around the world to be active and share their actions on being more sustainable in our modern world. <http://www.yre.global/yre-global-action-day>

Our first guest is, Ms. Ayşe Asatekin, a former YRE student and now an assistant professor in Chemical & Biological Engineering at Tufts University. Ms. Ayşe Asatekin participated in YRE mission in 1997, Reunion, to learn about microwave energy transfer. Ms. Ayşe Asatekin believes that YRE mission had a big impact on her carrier. She is delighted to have the opportunity to meet with YRE students and answer questions about her experience with YRE.

Date & Time: Tuesday, 3 November, 2015 at 16:00 CET

Guest: Ms. Ayşe Asatekin, Assistant Professor at Tufts University, Former YRE student

Meeting venue: Online

Programme: Short introduction from Ayse, interviews from selected participants to Ayse

Duration: Max. 1 hour

Host: YRE International

Who can participate?

- Max. 5 Selected students age between 11-21 years old participating YRE programme
- Max. 2 Selected teachers involved in YRE programme
- Max. 2 Selected National Operators

What do you need?

- Passion to the YRE programme and environmental journalism
- Internet access *You will need to be able to install conference call software
- Ability to listen and speak in good level of English

If you are interested in participating in the event as Young Reporter, please write us a few lines about yourself (name/age/country), and an example of your question(s) to Ayse. Please send your details to your National Operator. <http://www.yre.global/our-national-operators/>

YRE International is planning to host series of online interviews with different guests from YRE network.