

Young Reporters for the Environment

Call for Internship Opportunity 2016

11 July 2016

Young Reporters
for the environment

Young Reporters for the Environment (YRE) is a programme which engages youth in environmental journalism through the YRE methodology. It is run in 30 countries around the world and is growing. YRE is one of the five environmental education programmes which are run by Foundation for Environmental Education (FEE).

YRE International offers an internship for a student or a graduate student on research and programme development for the YRE programme.

Young Reporters for the Environment - www.yre.global Foundation for Environmental Education - www.fee.global

Main tasks and responsibilities

- Conduct research on global educational trends based on online resources and resources provided by National Operators in different YRE countries, and prepare a report about how the YRE programme can fit into global trends and how it can be integrated into national curricula
- Create educational material on YRE programme for teachers, including the information about how the programme can be run through different school subjects
 - Material should be based on national curriculum standards from approximately 5-10 countries.
 - Material should be related and linked to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)
 - Material should include examples of lesson plans together with cases from YRE countries where the YRE programme is already being run through school curricula
- Assist with administrative work for YRE programme when required

Terms and conditions

- Internship for a duration of a minimum of six months
- The successful applicant should start ideally at the beginning of September 2016
- The successful applicant will be provided with a work space at FEE Head Office
- The successful applicant will be responsible for own accommodation and transport between home and FEE Head Office
- English is the official language at FEE Head Office

- The successful applicant may have to travel in Europe in connection with the research

Note: The conditions are negotiable once you have been chosen for the position.

Required skills and experience

- Good knowledge of written and spoken English
- Background in pedagogical education, communication, environmental study, or policy studies
- Precise and organised way of working
- Proficient user of Microsoft Office package
- Capability of working in a team as well as independently
- Comfortable working in a multicultural environment

Highly valued

- Knowledge of Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) and environmental issues
- Experience in internship at NGOs
- Fluency in other languages
- Knowledge of photography, video editing and/or animation tools, and social media

Application procedure

1. Please send your CV and motivation letter by 15 August 2016 via email
Gosia Luszczek gosia@fee.global Yukiko Tsuburaya yukiko@fee.global
*Please send your application to both email addresses
*Please write in the subject "Application for YRE Internship"
2. The short-listed applicants will be called for an interview on Skype or in person at the FEE Head Office (evaluation process will take up to a week, depending on the volume of applications)
3. The successful applicant will be announced by the end of August 2016

Please contact us at any time if you have any questions regarding the offer.

Contact

Young Reporters for the Environment
Scandiagade 13, DK-2450 Copenhagen SV, Denmark
Tel. +45 70 22 24 27 (Mon-Thurs 10-15, Fri 10-14)